

This is My Isagenix Weight Loss Story

Here is my Isagenix story – the last chapter is not written yet, but I am enjoying the ride! There were many things that lead me to a desperation to lose weight. To mention a few ~ for the past few years, every time I traveled on an airplane ~ I had to ask for an “extension” in order to fasten my seatbelt. I want to be a fun grandma when the time comes ~ and be able to get back up off the floor when I play with my grandchildren. If God asked me to go on a mission trip, I’d have to say “Sorry Lord, can’t fit in the plane, or climb a hill.”

Well, I began a deep heart’s cry asking God to help me lose weight. As a Registered Nurse, I was embarrassed that I could not use even my Master’s Degree in nursing to combat my own weaknesses and curb my cravings. I kept hearing “weight-loss surgery” commercials and I just knew that was not an option for me. I even looked into a summer time “fat camp,” but found those were thousands of dollars.

I specifically asked God for something that would help me lose weight quickly and safely. Then it happened - Divine Intervention is what I call it. I drove past a reader board sign at a local Chiropractor’s office that said “weight loss and cleansing”. I made a note of the meeting time and attended the meeting.

After listening to Dr. Becky on a video and meeting people with tremendous health and weight loss stories, I knew this was my answer to prayer. Debra Ewing signed me up that night and has been an incredible coach to me. In a short period of time, I lost 70 pounds by using the Isagenix programs and eating more healthily. Friends began to notice right away ~ so I quickly started sharing the products with others and coaching them through their programs.

I became a Crystal Executive and am having so much fun sharing this miracle with others. I carry the Business & Product Overview booklet from www.AllInOneBusiness.net and some Membership forms with me everywhere I go. Use the Isagenix program as closely to the guidelines as possible and talk about it. I say “wear it and share it”!!

I have now lost 75 lbs. My goal is to be in Vegas in August 2008 as a member of the 100 Pound Club. I thank the Lord. I thank Isagenix ~ and I thank my coach Debby.
